As AASI Program Specialist, Fe Delos-Santos has also submitted proposals to UConn's Human Rights Institute for Human Rights Program Funding as follows (Proposals Submitted AY / Amount of Award):

2005-2006 Grace Shimizu, speaker and film screening: Claiming Our Human Rights, The Japanese Latin American World War II Internment and the Campaign for Justice, Redress and Reparations, $2,200

2009-2010 Priscilla Gonzales and Ai-Jen Poo, keynote and one-day conference: Hope in Hard Times: The Domestic Workers Bill of Rights, $2,500

2010-2011 Rahna Reiko Rizzuto, speaker and book launch: "Ground Zero" and Human Rights from Hiroshima to 9/11, $2,500

2012-2013 Remembrance and Responsibility: Future Directions for the Redress and Reparations Movement // Marking the 25th Anniversary of Achieving Redress and Reparations for the WWII Japanese American Internment Not Funded / Invited to Resubmit (see below)

2013-2014 Lane Ryo Hirabayashi, speaker and book launch: A Principled Stand: The Story of Hirabayashi v. the United States, $1,000