

FALL 2016

ARTH3020/AASI3220 Asian American
Art & Visual Culture

MW 10:30 – 11:45 am in Art Building (AB) 106

Interested in contemporary art and artists? Explore how Asian artists in the United States, ranging from recent immigrants and refugees to the American-born deal with issues of identity, cross-cultural connections, and community through the visual arts. View artworks, artist videos, films, and guest lectures that vividly bring these issues to life.

Martin Wong, "Clones of Bruce Lee," 1992

Instructor: Margo Machida, Art History & Asian American Studies

For more information contact: margo.machida@uconn.edu