A Reading / Brandy Liên Worrall

Co-sponsors: Asian American Cultural Center, Creative Writing Program and NEH Enduring Questions Grant

WHAT DOESN’T KILL US chronicles Brandy Liên Worrall’s journey with an aggressive, rare breast cancer at the age of 31. She will reflect on the parallels between her experiences with cancer, and her American father’s and Vietnamese mother’s trauma and survival during and after the Vietnam War that exposed both of her parents to Agent Orange. Brandy tells her story with razor-sharp humor and wit, leaving readers a lasting impression of the meaning of survival.
